The Chief and Council of the Aamjiwnaang First Nation strongly support the recent actions of the Sarnia Police to deal with illegal activities taking place on our lands.

Aamjiwnaang community members deserve to live in a community that is safe, healthy and sustainable. Activities that threaten the well-being of our members will not be tolerated.

Please call police if you see any suspicious activities on the First Nation.

The Aamjiwnaang First Nation (formally known as Chippewas of Sarnia) has a membership of 2,300 people, 850 of which reside on the First Nation. We are located on the St. Clair River, 3 miles south of the southern tip of Lake Huron in the city limits of Sarnia, Ontario, Canada.
