

AAMJIWNAANG FIRST NATION CHIPPEWAS OF SARNIA

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position Title: Species at Risk (SAR) Technician Assistant

Location: Sarnia, ON

Duration: Temporary – Until October 31, 2019

Posting Closes/Deadline: May 17, 2019

Position Summary:

Assisting the SAR technician collecting data on species at risk, which includes; mapping, inventory, collection and relocation of the species, both clusters and populations of butler garter snakes.

- Do you enjoy or want to explore environmental work?
- Do you like working in a team setting?
- Are you responsible, hard-working, and willing to learn and participate in new activities?
- Are you interested in working outside and learning how to do a broad range of work activities related to species at risk (SAR) and aboriginal traditional knowledge (ATK) of the environment?

Requirements:

- Must have or be able to attain First Aid and CPR (if necessary)
- Must have a general knowledge of the area
- Must be comfortable working outdoors for long periods of time and walking long distances
- Must be comfortable and kind handling animals and reptiles if need be (snakes, turtles, frogs, birds, etc.)
- Organized and willing to learn reporting and data collection, mapping and GIS
- Knowledge of a variety of computer software and applications (Microsoft Word, Excel, Power Point, E-mail programs, search engines)
- Must be an excellent and motivational team worker

Other Considerations:

Preference may be given to Indigenous candidates with relevant on reserve employment and / or those with knowledge and understanding of Aamjiwnaang and history and community.

Application Process:

If you are interested in this opportunity, kindly forward your resume and cover letter via mail or email or fax or in person to:

Aamjiwnaang First Nation
978 Tashmoo Avenue
Sarnia, ON N7T 7H5
Attention: Corrie Wilkinson
Human Resources Assistant
Or
HumanResource@aamjiwnaang.ca
Or
519-336-0382 fax