Boozhoo Kin Wiiya / Hello all

Misko Giizgik Ndishnikaaz , My Name is Red Cedar Woman. My given name is, Marina Plain. I would like share a few words about my late Grandfather Aylmer Nicholas Plain. In this new era of social media and online resources, I often wonder what he would have thought about all of this global development. I believe he would have enjoyed it and it would have also saved him a few of his hard earned dollars. Each Spring , I am reminded of his smile , his laugh , his studious ways, and the many visitors at his home on Tashmoo.

I would never be able to summarize the impact that he had on my life , I can just say if. It weren't for his guidance and role modelling , many of us (Plains) would not be where are today. We each have knowledge and ways that we can help each other everyday, that was his way and that is one of the things that he instilled in me.

In my recollection, he was an evangelist and preacher that had utilized Anishnabemowin when he travelled to Northern Communities to share his songs, ideas and donations to our Northern brothers and sisters. I also recall attending many camp meetings and gatherings with him at the front , preaching , playing the organ or Ukulele. As a child, I was blessed to have been brought up with this, his work lives on today , in our community , at the Church.

If you ever go to our United Church , in the pews you will see a his work titled "OJIBWAY AND ENGLISH HYMNS. My copy is one that I cherish and will keep with me always.

Chi Miigwetch for reading and Happy Upcoming Easter to all!

Respectfully , Marina Plain

Verse of the Day

Psalm 133:1- "How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!" It is rewarding to understand people and to maintain healthy relationships with others. Sometimes this is relatively easy, but with some people it can be exceptionally difficult. So much depends on the disposition of other people: with some it is easy to start a conversation and their pleasant personalities make them a pleasure to be with. But not all people are like that.

There are many people who are abrupt and difficult and who seem to derive pleasure from making things unpleasant for those around them. If you ignore these people, you avoid the problem, but you do not solve it.

Handling the problem of human relations constructively requires patience and sympathetic understanding on your part. You need to give others the opportunity to talk even if what they say hurts. You need to remain calm. Then you will often discover that behind the rough exterior and apparent rudeness, there is a person who yearns for love and friendship.

Help Sereena to 2019 Super Channel Championships

I am a twenty-three year old, indigenous woman who lives in London, Ontario. I have been selected to represent Ontario at the "2019 Super Channel Championships" taking place in April, at Langford B.C. I am seeking out sponsorship or any sort of donations to help towards my dream of becoming a "2019 National Champion"! I have set up a gofundme page at www.gofundme.com.

Thank you for your support and encouragement!
