Tyler Callander – Aamjiwnaang Community Police Officer

My name is Tyler Callander and I am a police officer with the Sarnia Police Service. I was selected by Chief Plain and Council to fill the role of the Aamjiwnaang Community Officer. This position is meant to provide greater access to Police and build upon the relationship between the community and the Sarnia Police Service.

I have been overwhelmed by the warm welcome I have received from Aamjiwnaang community members thus far and look forward to working closely with all of you. My goals are to learn as much as I can about the community so that I can meet the expectations of Aamjiwnaang and build long lasting relationships. I am very excited about this new role and look forward to meeting all of you.

FYI – Health benefits under Indigenous Services Canada

The Non-Insured Health Benefits Program (NIHB) - (Indigenous Services Canada) is a National Program administered by Health Canada providing coverage for:

- Dental
- Drugs
- Medical Supplies & Equipment
- Medical Transportation
- Vision Care
- Short-Term Crisis Intervention Mental Health Counselling,

? Client questions – contact the NIHB client Information Line at: 1-800-640-0642

For all dental information or questions, contact the NIHB Client Dental Information Line at: 1-888-283-8885

Using your benefits:

When you present your Status Card to any health provider, ask if they bill directly to NIHB before obtaining the service.

Ensure the health care provider verifies that the product/treatment is an eligible benefit listed on NIHB.

Be aware: if you are asked to pay upfront, it can take 6 to 8 weeks to be reimbursed, and you may not get reimbursed if the benefit was not pre-approved. You may want to seek out a provider that does bill directly to NIHB.

The drug or product may be an exception benefit requiring the provider to call the Drug Exception Centre at: 1-800-580-0950

Benefits Outside of Canada

You must purchase travel health insurance if you travel outside of Canada. If you are a migrant worker or a full-time student working or studying outside of Canada, call NIHB to ask about coverage at:

1-800-640-0642

More information can be found on their website: <https://www.sac-isc.gc.ca/eng>

As the Family of the Late Andrew Maness who was a Dad, Brother, Uncle, Grandfather, dear friend, we would like to express our sincere appreciation in the heartfelt condolences, and the love shown by all who knew Andy.

Andy shared his Character, Strength and Spirit within his immediate and extended families...

A dear friend rightly quoted "He tried to demonstrate a tough exterior but he was a butterfly on the inside" ..so true, in his sharing of love and immense sense of humour!!...

Special thanks to Bluewater Health, Chief Chris Plain & all of Aamjiwnaang, our extended families, and volunteers who prepare the feasts...

Your thoughts, prayers and expression of love was not only felt, but it was seen.... God Bless You!

Performance and accountability are a huge part of the ED role, making sure objectives, budgets, strategy, schedules, budgets, and standards are followed through communication and collaboration. Oversee the entire financial and administrative structure, ensuring that the Board is accurately apprised of developments and risk management. The ED recommends the engagement of legal, technical, consultative or other professional advice or counsel necessary to ensure sound management of the Centre with approval of Board, preparing solid briefing notes of a political, economic, technical, cultural and social nature. Ensure all generally accepted accounting principles are followed for superior financial management. Develop new programs through proposals based on Board strategic priorities.
- People and Culture Management- Lead and develop the Senior Management Team, building a successful “team approach” within the Centre staff group to develop clear performance standards and work objectives for employees. Along with the Operations Manager, ensure the successful recruitment, orientation, hiring, induction, training, supervision, and evaluation of all personnel; and to ensure that all personnel policies reflect quality management of resources within the Centre. Nurture a positive, safe workplace environment with open communication at all levels and functions in the organization. Monitor staff engagement and adherence and respect for Indigenous ways of knowing, being and doing. Ensure management and monitoring of the overall operation of daily staff work schedules, holiday periods, and in-service training programs to assure safety and high quality of programs.
- Community Liaison- Develop and maintain effective connections between the Centre and the First Nations community agencies including medical services, and community agencies including medical services, social services, education, law enforcement, probation services, and prevention projects within the Southwest District. Promotes community awareness of substance misuse by maintaining effective relationships with First Nations Chiefs and Councils, Elders, community residents, teachers, youth, recreation and community groups and in personal professional development. Lead license reviews and accreditation processes; Participate in education program for employees and ensure skills and certifications are maintained. Establish and maintain privacy policies and ensure confidentiality. Promote a sense of community, safety, continuity and consistency throughout the youth's healing experience. Demonstrate a genuine expression of organizational values while fulfilling all duties and functions. Demonstrate exceptional interpersonal skills and the ability to handle difficult situations in an objective consistent format, modelling positive behaviour for youth;

Qualifications:

Education & Experience:

- Must have a Master of Social Degree (MSW) or Bachelor of Social work with significant experience in a healing environment.
- Five years of experience in organizational, staff and financial management
- In-depth- knowledge of indigenous practice and healing

First Nations Community Building Retrofit Program

Aamjiwnaang First Nation is participating in the Independent Electricity System Operator's (IESO) Save on Energy First Nations Community Building Retrofit Program (FNCBRP)

Samples of Energy Saving Retrofit Items

Occupation Sensor

Occupancy sensors detect the presence or absence of people and turn lights on and off accordingly. This could reduce your lighting usage by up to 15%

Replacing old lighting with, LED bulbs

Changing your lights out for an LED equivalent can reduce lighting energy useage by up to 65%

This IESO Save on Energy program has provided funding for 4 community buildings to recieve lighting upgrades including the Band Office, Binoojiinyag Kino Maagewgamgoons Early Learning Centre, E'Mino Bmaad-Zijig Health Centre, and Maawn Doosh Gumig Community and Youth Centre.

Energy data was collected from each eligible community building to create a Benchmark Report, which recommended that these 4 community buildings would benefit the most from lighting upgrades to reduce long term energy costs.
