FYI - Health Benefits under Indigenous Services Canada

The Non-Insured Health Benefits Program (NIHB) - (Indigenous Services Canada) is a National Program administered by Health Canada providing coverage for:

Dental, Drugs, Medical Supplies & Equipment, Medical Transportation, Vision Care, and Short-Term Crisis Intervention Mental Health Counselling.

Client Questions? - contact the NIHB client information line at: 1-800-640-0642

Using your Benefits: When you present your status card to any health provider, as if they bill directly to NIHB before obtaining the service. Ensure the health care provider verifies that the product/treatment is an eligible benefit listed on NIHB

Be Aware: If you are asked to pay upfront, it can take 6-8 weeks to be reimbursed, and you may not get reimbursed if the benefit was not pre-approved. You may want to seek out a provider that does bill directly to NIHB. The Drug or product may be an exception benefit requiring the provider to call the Drug Exception Centre at 1-800-580-0950

Benefits Outside of Canada: You must purchase travel health insurance if you travel outside of Canada. If you are a migrant worker or a full time student working or studying outside of Canada, call NIHB to ask about coverage at 1-800-640-0642. More information can be found at <https://www.sac-isc.gc.ca/eng>

Reimbursements: Mail your reimbursement form along with your original receipts and a copy of your prescription to;

Aamjiwnaang Members;

Frank Clarke, a postdoctoral researcher with York University, is doing research on the experience of Aamjiwnaang First Nation students in the Sarnia Public School system from 1954 to the late 1970's.

As part of his research, he is looking to speak to any Band Members that were born between 1942 to 1950 and attended Public Schools in Sarnia, including Blue Water Public School, Sarnia Collegiate, Queen Elizabeth, St. Clair (now Great Lakes), Devine Street School, Parkview School, Johnston Memorial School, Lochiel Street School, London Road School and Hanna Memorial. Frank will be in the community to meet with Band Members from Wednesday August 30 to Sunday September 3. If you or anyone you know attended prior to those years, he is also interested in speaking with you. If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Frank Clarke at 416-797-5255 or by email at fclarke@yorku.ca.

Attention Community members

The Ontario Electricity Support Program (OESP) can help you save on your energy bill!

The OESP allows qualifying households to apply a monthly credit to their bills, lowering the price they have to pay. This credit is calculated based on the size of the household and the total household income.

Bluewater Power and the Inn of the Good Shepherd have partnered to provide information about the program and assist with applications. See the flyer below for details on when they will be in the community and what you need to bring with you to apply.

*Please note- you must reapply for this program every two years, if your application has lapsed, they can help you reapply

ARE YOU RECEIVING YOUR *HYDRO BILL CREDIT?WE ARE HERE TO HELP

The Inn of the Good Shepherd will have staff available at the Mobile Market, Community Centre Pavillion from 12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. on Monday July 17, July 24, August 14 and August 21 to help you complete your applications to start receiving the Ontario Electricity Support Program credits. Eligible customers are receiving credits on their hydro bills between $45-$75 each month!

In order to apply you must bring:

- Names and Dates of Birth for everyone who lives in the household.
- Bank Statement showing 30 days for everyone in the household who has an income.
- Recent copy of your Bluewater Power hydro bill.

$45.00 - $75.00
