Women Building Futures a non-profit organization that was founded in Edmonton, Alberta, in 1998. Today, we offer training programs and support services across Alberta and are growing our impact in Ontario. We connect unemployed women and gender-diverse individuals as well as those working multiple jobs to make ends meet with higher-paying careers in trades, trucking and related fields.

Currently, we are trying to determine if there is enough local interest for a Line Crew Ground Support program for Indigenous women and gender diverse people. This program would be open to Indigenous women and gender diverse people from Kettle & Stony Point, Aamjiwnaang First Nation and Walpole Island. This is a pre-apprenticeship program that could lead to a power line apprenticeship.

We have developed a survey for folks to complete and these are available at your local employment and training office. Or you can contact Joanna Cloud for more information at cloud@womenbuildingfutures.com

As the second-oldest college in the Ontario publicly assisted system, we have served our learners and communities for nearly 60 years, and with ALL IN: The 2025-2029 Lambton College Strategic Plan, we are charting a strong and steady course towards the next 60.

We are providing our students with the best learning and research experiences to ensure they are well-equipped to contribute to, and thrive in, a world of opportunity.

We are fostering a vibrant culture of community, collegiality, and professional growth for our people to ensure we are the best at being better.

And we are continuing to form academic, research, and community partnerships that create value for our local and global community and elevate student and client impacts at local, national, and international scales.

At Lambton College, we know where we're going. Just as importantly, we know the way we're going to get there. We call it the Lambton Way, and we welcome applications from those who are interested in being part of it.

Lambton College is an equal opportunity employer seeking to live its values in all we do. We are committed to taking proactive steps to provide and create opportunities for historically marginalized groups. We seek applicants who will strengthen our commitment to diversity, equality, and inclusion. We strongly encourage the following qualified candidates: women, Indigenous peoples, racialized people, persons with disabilities, and those who identify as 2SLGBTQ+ to consider working with and for Lambton College.

We recognize that structural barriers shape experiences and job qualifications, and therefore we seek to use employment equity to differentiate between candidates who meet the required qualifications; and encourage people to apply even if they feel that the position would be a stretch.

This is a part-time support staff position working 24 hours per week at an hourly rate of $28.60. The role will start in October 2025 and run for 12 months. The closing date is Monday, September 22, 2025. The application process is only possible via online.

Returning to Ourselves

Session 1: The Anishinaabe Creation Story

The first in a series of monthly community wellness sessions guided by Anishinaabe knowledge, spirit, and culture.

In this session, we will begin our collective journey on the path of Bimaadiziwin – living the good life. Our work together will start with a foundational teaching of the Anishinaabe Creation Story, grounding us in our identity, purpose, and connection to all of Creation.

What to Expect:

- Opening Ceremonies: Smudge, water offering, and tobacco protocol
- Anishinaabe Teaching Circle: Guided storytelling and reflection on our origins
- Building the Bundle: Foundational teachings to begin shaping our personal and collective knowledge bundles
- Closing Ceremony: Circle sharing and Smudge/cleansing ceremony to complete the circle in a good way

This gathering is open to all who wish to learn, heal, and reconnect. It is especially supportive for those looking to explore culturally grounded approaches to wellness, trauma, and identity. Please note that all sessions offered within the same month will cover identical content. To ensure fair access for all participants, we ask that you register for only one session per month

INHERENT JURISDICTION INFO SESSION

PLEASE JOIN US FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO HAVE YOUR VOICE HEARD ON THIS IMPORTANT TOPIC.

Aamjiwnaang First Nation has the inherent right to care for its children, but colonial child welfare systems have imposed significant harm on our community. As part of our healing, we are exploring the reassertion of our law-making powers related to children and families. In 2020, the federal government enacted the Federal Act, recognizing Indigenous communities' jurisdiction over child welfare. This allows us to reclaim our law-making and enforcement powers regarding our children and families and to potentially create our own family wellbeing agency that reflects our values and traditions.

Through the Federal Act, we now have a clear path, if we choose, to reclaim our law-making and enforcement power relating to our children and families to the exclusion of Canada and Ontario. Through this process, we can create our own family wellbeing agency, which will carry out our own law for the care and wellbeing of our children and families. The law would be Aamjiwnaang's own law and reflect our values, culture, traditions and priorities.

The voices of our children, parents, aunties, grandparents, elders, knowledge keepers and language holders are critical in this process. All are welcome and encouraged to join.
