1. Background

The Aamjiwnaang Education Department has a mandate to provide a broad range of advisory and information services, technical and administrative support, and coordination of regional initiatives for Aamjiwnaang members.

Aamjiwnaang Education Department is governed by the Education Committee appointed by the Aamjiwnaang Council. As it relates to Post-Secondary Education Program, the duties and responsibilities of the Education Committee are:

- To provide input to the Manager of Education Aamjiwnaang concerning the overall management of the Program.
- To annually review the student assistance policy.
- To provide guidance to program staff in the review, evaluation, and/or development of recommended revisions to First Nation specific programs provided by the local colleges and universities.
- To review quarterly reports provided by the Post-Secondary Counsellor and staff of the Post-Secondary Education Program.
- To review and approve the three yearly intake submissions (March 1, and May 1, October 1) presented by the Manager of Education and the Post-Secondary Counsellor.
- To review student appeals; as directed by the Manager of Education.

2. Introduction to the Post-Secondary Program

The mission of the Aamjiwnaang Education Department is to assist eligible member in their pursuit of higher educational opportunities. We strive to enrich the experience of the student by supporting and advocating while they are on their academic path to self-empowerment.

The goal of the Post-Secondary Program is to continually increase the number of student graduates, while maximizing the limited funds in accordance with funding guidelines, to enrich oneself, their family, and our Nation.

The Post-Secondary Program objectives are to improve communications, develop student skill sets, and strengthen partnerships for the continual success of our present and future generations in the following manner:

Improve Communication

- Increase communication to and from students through student contracts, social media, and counselling sessions.
- Strengthen communications with Aamjiwnaang, Education staff and outside educational institutions through information sessions, annual open-house, and other outreach activities.

Develop Learner Skill Sets

- To be responsive to student needs by establishing rapport through a minimum of twice per semester counselling sessions.

- Encouraging students to access educational institution supports that increase their skill set.
- Locating and developing workshops for students to attain the necessary skills to be successful in their education.

Strengthen Partnerships

Develop partnerships with the local Post-Secondary Institutions by having representation on the Indigenous Education Councils to advocate for students and advise on initiatives, research, community resources, academic programming, and oversight of services.

3. Introduction to the Student Assistance Policy

This document outlines the Aamjiwnaang Post-Secondary Financial Assistance Policy.

The Objectives of the Post-Secondary Program Student Assistance Policy are to:

- b. For students attending Canadian private post-secondary institutions where a comparable program is offered by a Canadian public post-secondary institution, at the normal rate in Canadian dollars as charged by the Canadian public institution nearest to the student's place of residence at the time of application.

- c. For students attending Canadian private post-secondary institutions where no comparable program is offered by a Canadian public post-secondary institution, at the rate in Canadian dollars as charged by the Canadian private institution.
- d. High-Cost Tuition Fees: students are encouraged to seek out less costly but similar programs, all tuition fees exceeding $10,000 Canadian funds per annum will be subject to the Education Committee approval.
- e. For students attending a foreign public post-secondary institution, where no comparable program is available in Canadian public post-secondary institution, at actual rates in the appropriate currency. (Refer to 6.15).
- f. For students attending a foreign private institution, where no comparable program is available in Canadian public/private post-secondary institution, tuition will be paid at actual rates in the appropriate currency.
- g. For students attending foreign public and/or private post-secondary institutions where a comparable program is offered by a Canadian public post-secondary institution, at the normal rate in Canadian dollars as charged to a Canadian student by the Canadian public institution nearest to the student's place of residence at the time for application (refer to 6.15) for maximum payable amounts
- h. In the case of a First Nation Post-Secondary Institution, the tuition fees will be those normally charged to students attending a comparable program at a nearby provincial institution.
- i. PhD student funding will be based on financial need. Doctorate students must provide financial and/or grant information to their assigned counsellor.
- j. All financial assistance is based on availability of funds.

6.3 Travel Assistance:

- a. All travel costs are at the expense of the student including relocation expenses.
- b. Conference Funding: Students may be eligible for funding that includes registration fees and travel expenses to attend conferences and school trips that are mandatory and directly related to their program of studies by being a part of the regular curriculum which must be supported with a letter of recommendation from their instructor. All mandatory conferences must be known at the start of the program and communicated to their counsellor. Students must provide their counsellor with a written report and expense receipts upon return.

6.4 Assistance for Living Expenses: Living allowances to help cover students living expenses may be provided at a rate not to exceed that established by Education Department in consultation with the Education Committee from time to time. The current rates, with last change date, are attached as listed in section 17. Living allowances are in Canadian funds.

6.5 Residence Expenses: Students considering residence sponsorship must indicate so on their post-secondary financial application. Students must apply directly to their institution's residence and once accepted must provide a letter of acceptance from the institution. The Aamjiwnaang Post-Secondary Financial Assistance Program will cover the maximum eligible living allowance. Fees above the allotted living allowance will be at the cost of the student.

- 6.6 Co-op, Internship, practicum Field Placements: Students who are on co-op semesters and being paid by the employer will not be eligible for living allowances unless the monthly wage is less than that offered monthly by the Aamjiwnaang post-secondary program. If the amount is less than $1200 per month Aamjiwnaang will supplement the difference up to $1200. Students who are on unpaid internships and field placement may be eligible to receive assistance for living allowances.
- 6.7 Exceptional Assistance: Exceptional assistance for legally or institutionally required activities for initial professional certification or licensing fees may be provided as well as special testing fees as determined by the program requirements.
- 6.8 Intensive mode programs: students will be eligible to receive financial assistance with the payment of tuition fees, textbooks and supplies, and pro-rated living allowance.
- 6.9 Ineligible Assistance: Correspondence programs and Internet programs offered by private institutions will not be funded.
- 6.10 College and University base application fees will be paid or reimbursed by the Aamjiwnaang Education Department up to a maximum of $200.00. Application fees include OCAS, OUAC, and base applications for Master, PhD's, Teacher's College, Law School or Medical school. Based on availability of funding.
- 6.11 Extension fees for online course work will not be covered.
- 6.12 High-cost Equipment Purchases: High-cost equipment purchases such as computers, cameras, musical instruments, culinary supplies and etc., requires documentation from the college or university that the purchases are a necessary part of the program. If a student fails to complete their program of studies, all high-cost equipment purchases become property of Aamjiwnaang Education Department and must be returned immediately; as per Aamjiwnaang Property Form. Failure to return equipment to the post-secondary program will affect future assistance eligibility.
- 6.13 Special Needs Purchases: Special Needs Equipment purchase requests such as computers, readers, scanners, etc. requires documentation from Accessibility Services at the student's institution. The student must provide a copy of their IEP documentation that identifies their learning disability. If a student fails to complete their program of studies all special needs equipment becomes the property of Aamjiwnaang Education Department and must be returned immediately.
- 6.14 Books and Supplies Assistance: Support for books and supplies for a student's program of studies.
- $400 per semester for full-time college students
 - $800 per academic year for full-time university students.
 - $150 per course for part-time students (up to 2 courses)
- An amount in excess of $800, per school year may be approved if a student demonstrates need by submitting copies of the course outlines and the prices charged by the institution's bookstore or suppliers.

Book allowances will not be paid to students who are retaking a course for which they previously received funding for.

Receipts should be submitted within the fiscal year.

- 6.15 For a student enrolled in community college or CEGEP diploma or certificate program, or an undergraduate university program, the maximum amount payable per full-time student under the post-secondary program cannot exceed $35,000 per year. On an extraordinary and justified basis, the maximum amount payable per year for a student in an advanced or professional degree program (e.g. dentistry, medicine) or a Masters or Doctoral program may exceed $35,000 up to a maximum of $50,000. Such awards may be granted by special request on a case-by-case basis only and considered when a graduate student has extraordinary circumstances that warrant the setting aside of the standard policy on maximum amounts payable. The maximum amount was established to ensure that the most extreme circumstances could be funded as necessary. The actual amount of funding available to a student will depend on the overall amount of funding available in the program and for each recipient.
- 6.16 Health and dental fees will not be paid or reimbursed by the Aamjiwnaang Post-Secondary Program. First Nation citizens have health, dental and prescription drug coverage through the First Nations and Inuit Health Branch (Health Canada).
- 6.17 Students on an Individual Education Plan (IEP): Students on an IEP are to discuss it with their post secondary counsellor prior to the academic year to ensure all supports are in place before commencing the school year. Each year the student is required to revise their IEP indicating any changes and provide an outline of the academic standing achieved along with a transcript of marks.
- 6.18 Bus passes/Parking passes – must apply to the Education Services Request, pending funding availability.
